La Paloma's New Restaurant Announces New Year's Eve Celebration and Menu

Tucson, ARIZ.-- AZUL Restaurant Lounge, the Foothill's new upscale hotspot, is excited to welcome guests for a New Year's Eve celebration that includes a four-course meal, live music and dancing for $65 per person.

Executive Chef Serge DeLage and Chef de Cuisine Amanda Lindquist have planned a special menu that showcases the enticing Mediterranean-inspired flavors that AZUL has to offer. Roasted four onion soup will be followed by an orange zest and pink pepper dusted scallop or the choice of shaved wild mushrooms. For the entrée, guests can choose between garlic rosemary studded beef tenderloin, a duck breast braciolo with creamy mascarpone polenta or pan seared cod loin with white truffle risotto. For dessert, enjoy a flourless white chocolate torta made with warm hazelnut crème.

Guests can dance and bask in dramatic deep blue lighting, flirty candles and comfortable seating while DJ Corbin Dooley of KXCI 91.3 FM provides an upbeat eclectic mix of house music from 7pm-1am.

The Westin La Paloma is also offering a special room package rate for $195* single occupancy or $281* double occupancy, which includes dinner on New Year's Eve and breakfast on New Year's Day.

Reservations are required to attend AZUL's New Year's Celebration and can be made by calling 520.742.6000.
